

Stone House with 3 Bedrooms and attached Barn in the Creuse Countryside

This property is habitable & is situated in a small rural hamlet, in the middle of the Creuse Countryside, providing a quiet escape into french country living whilst not too far away from those all important towns for shopping/stocking up the freezer, etc. Only 5km to local shops and not far from the . . .

The Front Lobby provides access to:- a seperate WC; Kitchen with log burner & door into Dining area; and Lounge/Dining Area with lovely large open stone fireplace, windows to front & rear, door out to front & opening to hall leading through to attached Barn passing Utility Room & Study.

From the Dining Area a Timber Staircase rises to the First Floor landing giving access to the Family Bathroom & 3 good size Double Bedrooms.

Externally there is a good size rear garden to relax in or convert part to an allotment all with views to the Creuse Countryside.

The Creuse is probably the least developed of the three Limousin departments. There are many and varied attractions in the area for all ages from countryside walks to more active pastimes such as watersports, horseriding and adventure parks to name but a few. Discover the delights of the Ancient Churches and Grand Chateau's dotted throughout this region. Spread throughout the area are many bars and restaurants where you can enjoy the local food and drink. The airport at Limoges is about 2 hours away with daily flights to several U.K. destinations where London, Liverpool, Southampton and East Midlands airports can be reached . . .
