

Large mountain village house between Courchevel and Bozel with 4+ bedrooms in pretty village with views.

Lovely renovated house with lots of character and a very nice feel located centrally in a small mountain hamlet between the lively mountain town of Bozel, popular with mountaineers and skiers alike and the fantastic ski resorts of Courchevel which are part of the Three Valleys ski area.

The house is imposing and spread over the three floors. The top floor has been made into a separate apartment with its own access. The apartment has one bedroom and bathroom and a large living area with kitchen and plenty of room for sofa beds galore.

The view from the top floor apartment is particularly stunning.

The main house is made up as follows;

Ground floor living room, kitchen and diner all interlinked with a small terrace outside the entrance. There is a wood burner in the kitchen. Off here is a bedroom and large bathroom. On the first floor there is an office and then two further bedrooms plus a second bathroom. So in total 3 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms but with plenty of possibilities to create more.

This attractive house just 10mins drive from Courchevel 1300 offers potential for a good all year round holiday destination as its equally stunning in the summer with plenty on offer as well as the winter with the enormous ski area just up the road. If it's a permanent home you're after then this could be a strong choice as it offers the potential for a real mountain lifestyle.

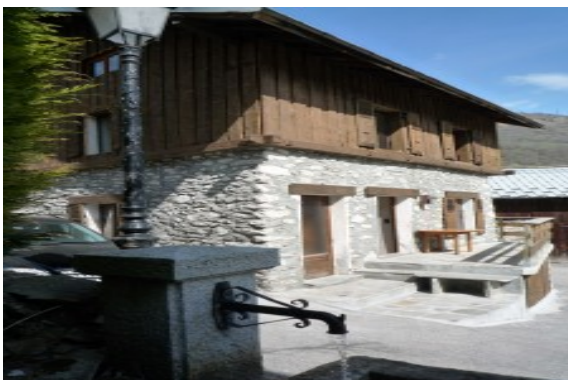

Can also be sold with a building plot which would provide private parking, a garden and the . . .
