

Impressive Maison d'Maitre avec 3 gites, Outbuildings, function room, pool and 2 hectares.

Impressive 200 year old Maison d' Maitre set in stunning grounds of 2 hectares. The property currently has 2 attached gites, 1 detached cottage, large outbuildings, swimming pool, function room and caters for weddings and other functions. Can be run as business. Viewing highly recommended.

La Tuiliere is a 200 year old Maison d'Maitre standing proudly in the middle of rolling green fields & woodland, it's a perfect back drop for those who enjoy the countryside and wildlife.

The approach to La Tuiliere is truly breathtaking, and takes you through some of the most stunning countryside in France.

The emerald pastures, dazzling streams and magnificent forests stretch endlessly in every direction. The entrance to the property is at the top of an impressive 200 metre tree-lined driveway, passing a friendly horse on the way!

The front garden is relaxed/formal and leads through to the venue room, le jardin d'hiver , and features a large attractive covered terrace in its forefront.

Le Jardin d'hiver has ornate windows that stretch down the entire length of the room with doors opening up onto the south gardens. Original oak beams and French architecture generates a medieval Gallic flavour, which is enhanced by several murals painted by a local artist.

The main house. Impressive with its large reception hallway and original winding staircase taking you to first and second floors. Relaxing living room area is to the right of the hallway, while an impressive dining kitchen . . .
