It is situated in a beautiful area with places like La Courtine at 8 km with schools, baker etc, and Aubusson at 43 km. Clermont Ferrand at prox. One hour drive. In the near surroundings you can go hiking and enjoy nature.

Located on the north-western border of the Massif Central la Creuse is one of France's best kept secrets. The Creuse is the 23rd department of France.

With a landscape full of undulating hills, streams, rivers, lakes and forest the Creuse remains virtually untouched by industry and is the perfect place to relax. The Creuse is also known as the green heart of France.

It is an area where you can enjoy life in the French countryside and nature, tranquillity and space. There are many lakes typical of the Limousin.

Aubusson is located in the narrow, picturesque valley of the Creuse, surrounded by cliffs and wooded hills. This charming town with its many old houses and narrow streets is famous for its tapestries.
